MISSION:

Costa Rica

The power to save the Earth is in the cards!

The animals of Costa Rica are the stars of the newest edition of Xeko, the outrageously fun game that's turning kids into eco-leaders. Xeko enchants kids by combining two things they love: collectible cards and animals! Xeko Mission: Costa Rica is the second of 34 planned adventures to the most endangered places on earth. Four percent of net game sales are donated to Conservation International's programs to save the hot spots.
